Leaving For You

I have something to tell you
I've got to go, in a way you'll never see me again
We won't cross paths, and we won't hear tales
You have to forget my name

All I do is cause you hurt, and what is there to gain?
I'm leaving you, because I love you, please don't ask me to stay
I know I can't resist you
I love you in every single way

I don't want to hurt you though; I don't want your love to fray
I'm doing this to protect you, for the benefit of your heart
I don't want to die someday
Knowing it'll tear you apart

Davie Magill

My Empty Space

You know since you've left me
Life hasn't been the same
I really, really miss you
And my heart has been in pain

I remember all those times
We talked on the phone
Because I really miss you
I can't bear to be alone

You know I really miss you Are you too blind to see?
That an eternity without you
Is too much pain for me

So let's get back together
To the way we were before
I really, really miss you
And want to be with you once more

All That Needs to Be Said

We're separated so far apart
But I've never felt so close to you
And I miss you and you know I do
You've never been so far away
But you're only down the street
I could walk to your house right now
And give into love and defeat

All I want is to hold your hand
To have you by my side
There's no point running away from you when I can never hide
And it feels like you're so far away
I could smile at you when you walk past, each and every day
And all I want is you back and I know what I'd have to say

I love you, I always have You're a lot more than a friend
I need you and I always will I need you here to lend a hand
Keep me; keep me safe, from all harm across the land
Don't let me slowly slip away Down through sinking quicksand

All I need is you to tell me I'll be okay
That's all it takes to make me smile, all you need to say Don't worry about anything else, don't watch me walk away
Hold on to me, don't let me go, just hold on another day
It'll all be worth it in the end, it'll all work out okay Just tell me that you love me, because it's all You need to say

Davie Magill

Monologue poem

My last mistake, the worst I've made, though all is fake, our love did fade, and now I ask new, please take my heart, please keep it safe, don't tear me apart, This vicious nature, and loves wild ride, a new adventure, you by my side, we'll start afresh our love is gold, I have nothing left, all but my love, is sold, Our constant battle, the broken rules of love, you are my saddle, it won't work with you above, but I have to let go and say goodbye, I cannot hold you close, can't watch you die, What is this plan? Why all of this pain? All I want I a man, no-one special just plain, someone who won't be taken or lost, someone I can love, that the only cost, I don't want them taken, don't want to say "goodbye", I feel I've been forsaken, my love left to die, what is the point in life, without someone to live for, I want them to stay, not leave through a door...

Davie Magill

All those things about you

Sometimes, I don't understand
At these moments I'll hold your hand I'll look at your face, it'll smile, as we embrace, and it makes me smile back too.

Thinking this brings back memories, brings back all those things I once knew, Sometimes I want to forget what life is all about, my love for you.

Because you once broke my heart, you tripped me at the end,
And I had to restart, and I miss your hand, softly comforting mine, its these memories that last in my mind

I don't remember all that you did, only the sweet little quirks you had in you, the way your tickled my back if we were standing side by side, trying not to stand out and hide.

I'll always remember how you liked to whisper in my ear, how you stood up and came out and faced all that you feared.

What I'll remember most and I don't know why is how you grabbed my hand in public, pulled me close and always kissed me goodbye.

But perhaps the most standout of all, the way you'd lean across the table in front of your family, whisper you loved me, and kiss me for all to see.

I loved you, and you broke my heart. I don't know what to do without you, now we are apart, I'm just waiting for someone else to come along, until then I guess I'll just have to be strong.

Davie Magill

Earth and the Moon

The earth withstands the test of time
Its heart must be greatly stronger than mine
Earth lost its soul, its grass and its trees
You broke my heart, and brought me to my knees

The earth is the only planet with a living race
But not as alone as me, with this empty space
It stands up against the stronger sun
Unlike I did for you, my only one

The moon makes the tide go in and out
I hated when we argue, scream and shout
But without the moon the earth would die
Like how I felt when you said, "Goodbye"

So let's stay together like the earth and the moon
For you only my heart does swoon
It yearns for your head against my chest
To lie together when we're tired to rest

You

Hearing your voice makes me smile Leaves me happy for a while Seeing your face makes me forget
All things that I regret

Maybe your nose a little small
Maybe your height a little tall
But it doesn't matter to me Because I'm in love with you, you see

When I see your face light up
When you see a new-born pup
You're my affectionate little boy
And you always bring me joy

Baby when we touch my life's complete
It's your heart I will defeat
Want to spend my life with you Because I really love you true

Autumn

Autumn leaves drop down dead
Falling on my sleepy head

I lift them up and squeeze them all
In tiny pieces they all fall

Such lovely colours warm and bright
To heat us up on this cold night

The air around is fresh and cold
As winter starts to take its hold

All My Feelings

I have feelings for you
You'll never know
And we talk all the time, a friend
But you make me glow

You won't have noticed
Because nothing has changed
Because I've loved you this whole time
You won't know the difference, because there hasn't been one

I want what I can't have Its breaking heart
Taking my each and every breathe
Pulling my insides apart

Then I see you with other people
I see you smile, and it made me jealous Something I'm getting used to Without being over-zealous

I only wonder if one day you'll change
For how much I love you
But I know that day will never come
That dream will not come true

You

When you're gone
You're still with me
In my heart
You will be

You are the love
Of my life
For no one else
I have to strife

When I'm with you
You make me smile
Which makes me happy
For a long, long while

Because you, are my baby
And I love you
If I was without you
I wouldn't know what to do

Without You

Recently I've been lonely
I've had a lot of time to think
And all I seem to be able to do
Is think of you, I need to see a shrink

And I want it to stop
You don't know how hard I've tried
And I don't think I can go on much longer
I wish our relationship never died

Sometimes I think after 100 poems
I'd be over us, and not feel so alone
But I need you more than ever
My love has only grown

It's true; I need you more than ever
And you're just out of my reach
It often makes me cry
That I can't lean over
Just to rest my head on your shoulder
Just to let it all out

I just want to say what I want
Say how I feel, but you're gone now
And I don't think I can go on
Without you
Anymore, I've missed you by my side
Please come back, stay with me, find me, don't ever hide

The Lion of My Life

It's a sad world out there.
Without you by my side,
All the emotion of life.
Without the one last place to run to.
The one who always stood there beside me; you.

It's a funny old time this;
A world at war, a world of peace.
Our love seems to switch on and off, like love and war, like a light bulb with and a switch.
I miss you now more than ever, and I need you beside me.
Can't you see? You and I, were meant to be.

I don't know though, how I stuck around.
I put up with you so long, the simple melodies you sang me, and each sentence was a song.
I know I'm lost without you, I know I've lost my soul,
But at least I've left with my heart, almost intact.
Perhaps a better goal.

I'll never find a love quite like you.
But at least I'll love again.
So for now let our bitter memoirs, be shallow single graves.
I know that best friends can be enemies, but let's not let this friendship end.
I know I'll always love you, my man, my partner, my best friend.

You're the lion of my life, a king who runs wild and free.
I'm sorry to say that it's ruined us, I just feel hurt.
Lonely, is this how love is meant to be?
Yet I trust you more than anyone, but I fear that word, cheat.
I know you'd never cheat, but yet, the empty cavity I call my chest, when thinking of it, seems to shallowly beat.

Following my heart I'm running. Away from fear and not towards love.
A mistake that could lead to regret, and a pain so deep inside.
I don't know what I'll do without you, my strong king, my untamed Lion.
I'll run with all my pride.

Don't chase, don't listen, and don't follow me.
Your love was never the case. It was my love towards you.
Was it real? It felt it, but how come I could not relax?
The stress it slowly killed me, through no fault but my own.

I love my Lion fondly, and it's why I've got to run.

Needed

By your side, the only place I long to be
When I need you most, when my world is lost at sea You're never there, whenever I need you most You're like a ship, and I'm a lighthouse, by the coast

If I was falling, I can't see you catch me
If I needed held, I don't think you'd hold me
If I was crying, would you wipe every tear?
I don't think you would, if you would you'd be here

You used to tell me you loved me
I believed it, now I'm struggling, your words just don't seem to fit
Perhaps I want to convince myself that your love for me is true
Perhaps it's because I really love you

If you needed me I'd be there, for every single call
Just a whisper that you need me and I will give you my all
If I needed held, you wouldn't have to wait for me to appear I'd already be beside you, wiping every tear

Meant To Be

I wake up every morning
I've got you by my side
Whether you're there or not doesn't matter
You're in my heart, inside

When I say I'll always love you
I've never said words so true
I always want you by my side
I just can't live without you

You're never out of my head
I don't know what to do
I'm never able to concentrate
When I'm thinking of you

You've taken me over You've stolen my heart
The time we've had has been special
And this is only the start

I want and I need you
You're just so beautiful to me
You make me so happy Callum Anyone can see

I love you more than anyone
It feels you belong to me
And I belong to you Like we were meant to be

Left Here

I loved you, I lost you
There was nothing I wouldn't do Now I'm left here sitting; now we're through Wondering how we lost all that was true

The only memory I have left
Is a little picture on the wall?
I wonder where it all went wrong
When did we lose it all?

Words withstand the test of time
Unlike us, I've lost what's mine
You broke my heart, your words were true
You didn't love me, but I'll always love you

I remember saying my goodbyes to you
Now I'm lost, I needed you, now what shall I do?
There are tears in my room, dripped across the floor
Each fell as you hugged me and walked away, right out that door

Now I'll put another picture on your wall Perhaps an empty picture frame, a message to all I'll never love again, I'll always be alone
After losing you, my most cherished ever own

In My Bed

When I call your name, you don't listen
When you climb into my bed
I guess that's when you're missing
Far away as you rest your head

You close your eyes as you fall asleep
You don't say my name, or say a word, not a peep or a wink Watch you close your eyes Feel my heart slowly sink

You're not worth being upset for You aren't worth this pain
You were the happiest thing
You took our love on vain

All I want, all that completes me, is a laugh or a smile
All I have now is bitter memoirs and memories
I'm a crumpled bed of autumn leaves
Unable to dance without my breeze

What's left, but this empty shell in my bed?
What happened to that guy, the one I loved, the one that ran through my head
He's not here anymore; he's still in my heart
But his empty body, it's tearing me apart

Swallowed

I started to watch the sun come around
The sky so blue, birds soaring from the ground Listening to the sea, the waves and the sound
The landscape it echoes, warning the ships that are bound
I hear the guns blasting, the fight that erupts
As the ships quickly battle the world it disrupts
The blood in the water, slowly spreads and corrupts scary red cloud, a symbol of war that irrupts

The smoke a symbol, a warning to all in range
That a battle ensues, men will be mamed Leaving faces so disfigured they'll never be named Bur the sea that swallows them will forever be famed

Goodbye

Whenever I need you,
Whenever I need to be held
Whenever I'm falling
Whenever my love for you has bled

You leave me waiting
When all I need is you so near
You leave me missing
With a pain I feel so dear

Why is it you won't listen?
Why can't you hear me cry?
Why is it I'm calling?
Perhaps we'll find out someday, when I say, goodbye

Leaving For Your Heart

I don't know if I want to do this anymore
I love you so, so much, words cannot describe
But I've got to leave you someday, maybe someday soon
I just can't leave you to a life beyond the moon

You know me more than most; you know I may have to go
As much as it hurts to leave you, I cannot see any other way
You know I don't want to leave you
But I'm leaving to save your heart, what else can I say?

I'll never leave you without me; I'm not breaking your heart like that
If I leave now we'll still have each other We'll leave with this friendship intact
A friend, a best friend, almost a brother

I'm not dying when it breaks your heart
I'm not putting you through it,
That's why I've got to leave you now It's why I've got to go, I don't know if I can live without you, but I've got to find out how

Each Other

Will I see you again?
Once I close my eyes
Once I escape this life
When I've said my goodbyes

Will I ever get to hold your hand?
Will ever feel your lips on mine?
Time is precious now
We're running out of time

How many times will I hear those words?
"I love you", when I go?
When will that last kiss be?
Perhaps we'll never know

We just have to learn to live
Each other's all we've got Two people in love who we'll always remember That time just forgot

Apart

Life is hard spending it away from you
The sea separates us from being together Cuts what we have in two

All I want is to kiss you and hug you and hold you tight
To wake up one morning with you
From last night

It's not fair that we're this far apart
It's you I'm meant to be with
I can feel it in my heart

Someday I'll come see you and sweep you off your feet
All I want is to be together
To make our lives complete

A Magical Place

The place that is so magical
The place I hold so dear
Is in the arms of the one I love
When I hold him close, so near

It doesn't matter where we are
Or the time of day
But sitting together is perfect
In every single way

Miss Jameson said to think of a place
But nowhere came to mind
I think it's because you're stuck in my head
These are the words I cannot find

Perhaps love's made me crazy
Perhaps, I'm off my head
All I know is I'm happy, as long as we're together
This love will never end

Your Light

When I am lost I find my way
No matter if it's morning, night or day
Because you light up the place with your big bright heart
One that promises never to tear me apart

Like a lantern with a bright, bright glow
You light up my night with a magical flow
The light which pours, lights up my day Driving away all evil which stands in our way

You make my heart beat twice as fast
To see how long your light will last
I follow it with intent to see
If your heart glows because of me

I will always find you in the dark
Your heart lights the place with a bright, burning spark It's a sight which is mine to hold
The lights belong to me and I never have to be told

Back together

You know I really love you
I just want you to know
That I've always loved you Since we met not long ago

You have a beautiful face
And big bright eyes
When we broke up
It hurt to say goodbyes

When you left me
My eyes filled up with tears
It made me realise even more Losing you was one of my fears

Carry on just like before
I really, really love you

When I'm Gone

When I'm gone and I'm not here anymore
Will you remember me forever, no matter what you endure?
There's no solution to death, but if I'm remembered forever it's as good
Immortality gives me my cure

Will you read my work, my memories written in words?
Will you read them and remember my past
I always knew someday my life would end Perhaps my work will last

When I'm gone don't listen to people who say to throw away my work
Keep it safe; keep it locked up, in a library on your shelf
I'll become your collection, through a diary of my life
My work the personification of myself

Read the things I wrote and picture in your head
The stories I tell you, everything painted in your mind Sit and wonder if things could have been different
If the world was a little less unkind

Is it a lesson to be better, to treat each other well?
Is my work a reminder, that life goes on with or without a broken heart?
But maybe I did not survive; I'm dead now, died of a broken heart, as the world looked on and tortured me, slowly tearing me apart

Look at the words I wrote; think of what's happened between then and now Has society changed? Was I ahead of my time? Would I have eventually fitted into the world?
But most importantly; how?

What's so different? What's not the same?
Why was my life a torture? Why was I in constant pain?
Maybe what the worlds missing now is evil, which appeared when I was alive
Maybe what we need, is a little determination, drive

I won't ever know, because I endured enough But you'll live on and see that things are different between now and when I wrote I'd fit into society now, but now society grabs me by the throat

And you ask why did it reject me? Because of who I loved?
Well society was different then, its why I'm up above
But I'm not here alone, looking down
I'm not the only one to fall in love

Read my work, let it teach you well
You will learn all through my work Those things didn't happen all those years ago, when I was around
But we fought to make them work

The evil in society has been vanquished
We are now free to do, to live Simply spell evil backwards, its begging to be brought to life, it represents freedom, society We can all live together now, but then we could not, but I have a word for evil, one word to sum everything up, forgive

Things are different now, accepting
I was rejected then, perhaps it was the death of me Because people could not simply see, I loved men naturally; instead they rejected themselves, the "evil" inside of me

Davie Magill

What's love?

What's love?

Why does it cause me all this pain?

Why it is when I approach it, my heart suddenly refrains?

And even though I know it could be my only chance

Knowing I could fall in love with you, with just a glance

What's love?

Why does it always catch up to me?

Why is it when I'm with you, I'm always too blind to see

Because I'm blinded by what you make me feel

You're spinning my world around just like a wheel

What's love?

The dictionary says it's a passionate affection

Maybe that's why, I can feel this connection

There's something in the air when I'm with you

And without it I don't know what I'd do

What's love?

This thing that I've found

It's picked my spirit up, lifted me right off the ground

And I know that all I feel is true

Because my heart's still beating, 'cause of you

What's love?

This thing keeping me alive

My heart's been through all this torture and I've survived

And I know what I'm full of

This torturous thing called love

What's love?

This thing I feel inside

I don't know what it is, but in my heart it does reside

And I'm gonna let it stay in me

Because it could mean, you and me!

What's love?

This thing I feel for you

It makes me say some funny things this is nothing compared to what I do

And I know you're the reason, that I feel it in my heart

I don't want you to go away, because this is just the start

This is love

My feeling deep inside

This feeling that I feel I must hide

But it calls you; it calls out your name

I want to hold you but my heart it does refrain

This is love

It causes all this pain

I have nothing to lose, and everything to gain

But I know I've thrown away my only chance

Because I only gave you a single glance

This pain that I feel

This spinning around, like a ferris wheel

And I don't know if I'll get back up off the ground

Because my hearts in love with you, the one I've found

Let it out you're Not Alone

Each time I see your face
I look to see you smile
Instead you cry. And I'm tired of it Because I don't know why
Why don't you let me help you?
Because I can't take this anymore, this could be our final goodbye, when I walk out this door

Just let me hear your voice
Tell me in my ear
Tell me all I need to know, all I need to hear.
Don't hold back; let it out
Tell me what's happening, what this is about I can't take this anymore, you like this, just let me tell you all will be well
Let me pick you up as you explain, how from the top of the world you fell

Just tell me how you're feeling, I may feel the same Let it out, tell me you're okay, just don't worry me and play with me this way
Just tell me how your feeling, softly whisper in my ear I know how hard it is but it's nothing you should fear, just whisper to me through every tear, tell me what I might not want to hear
I'll still love you just the same

Don't hold back, let every tear run down your face, let them drip onto my hand
I don't care if my shoulder gets wet, I'm here, I know things often don't go as planned Cry into my shoulder and tell me all you want to say
I don't care your still my friend, I just want you to stay
I know it hurts, but it hurts to see you like this Just tell me how you feel, or I'll show you because I know I've seen it in your eyes before, how when you see me they often glow

Don't be scared, your secrets safe, you're safe with me
You can be whoever you want to be
I know it hurts and sometimes you're weak
But you have to be strong, don't be bleak You're the strongest person that I know; you'll work it out in the end
I don't care if you love me; I'll always be here, a friend

I don't care if you gave in, I don't care that you were scared

You just need to let it out, to somebody, to me, I'm your friend and forever I have cared
So let me know how you feel, what makes you frightened
I understand but tell me more, I need enlightened

You're scared of what people think? Of how they feel?
Don't worry about them; you're not a film they can look at on a reel
Do what you want, love who you want and say how you feel Don't worry about how you feel, how you think people will react, love who you want
At the end of the day they'll heal
Don't worry how they'll treat you quite often they will taunt Don't let it get to you because when you have somebody to love, they're all you'll need and want

In My Arms

I have all I'll ever want, need or cherish
When you are in my arms
I'll keep you safe forever
Away from all of life's harms

I was put here for a reason
As a human with a chest
I have realised now
It was so your head had a place to rest

I will forever and always love you
You make my life complete Your beautiful eyes and beautiful face
To me you are so sweet

The happiness you give me
It is so much, it means so dear
I know that when you hold me
I have nothing left to fear

So I'll say it again, whisper it softly
Because these words are so true Callum listen closely,
"I'm in love with you"

Two Angels

Two angels in my darkness
Two bright sparks in my life
I wish I was straight Because I'd make one of you my wife

You light up my happiness
You both make me smile
You're both my fashion icons
Full of glitz, glamour and style

You are both my favourite huggers
I'll always lend you an arm
I'll cherish you both, I'll keep you both safe Away from any harm

My two beautiful girls
I'll do anything for you both, I'll walk every mile Because I love my angels
And I long for you both to smile

You're both simply perfect
On every single way
I'll forever love you both
And that's all that I can say

Broken

When everything is broken
When everything begins to fall away
When things begin to break down
When you ask yourself, should I go or should I stay

Would you ever, stay with a broken heart?
When all you do is hurt-
You don't feel how you felt at the start Things broke away, and those missing things are tearing us
apart

You used to fill me with tears of joy, which are now tears of fear
The only time I trust you is in my arms, when we're close, when I have you so near
I still and always will love you
But do you love me? Honestly and true?

Where were you when I needed you?
Why do you torture me?
Why is it when I see you, I can't help but fill with glee

I can't do this anymore
Not with this echoing pain
I'm tired of waiting for light
When I'm waiting in the rain

Will I ever, pick up the pieces of my broken heart?
Which lay scattered on your floor
Perhaps I should just leave them
Please usher me out through your door

Because I don't really need them
You've got my heart, and I'm not sure I want it broken again Perhaps if I don't have a heart Life would be more humane

All I need is you with me; I want you to tell me what you do Don't walk away then tell me, you had "stuff to do"
Don't leave me sitting wondering, what really is the point
I don't want to leave you because I love you, but you make me ache in every joint

The cavity inside where my heart once lay
Is nothing but a drum, with no feeling but pain
The banging of my chest, and the tears in my eyes
They indicate to me, there's only one thing to say, goodbye

I know I'll always love you, it hurts so deep inside
To leave you now, emotionally, I have no place to hide
I love you, always will and always have, and let's be rest assured
I could not go on with you, after the pain that I've endured

Lost It All

I just want to let you know
I love you a little bit more
Every time-
You walk out of that door

I guess I love you even more now I've lost you
I guess I love what I cannot have
Perhaps I feel alone
Now I've lost it all

Now all these things I cannot do Now that I have lost all I had

I just want to let you know
I love you a little bit more
Every time-
You walk out of that door

I guess I love what I cannot have
Perhaps I feel alone
I guess I love you even more, now that I've lost you
I know I've lost it all

If You Ever

If you ever hear me cryin'
Would you be there to hold me, close to your chest?
If you heard me callin'
Would you come to catch me? Catch me when I'm fallin'
'Cause you caught me, when I was fallin' for you But that's all over now, baby, we're through

Our dreams are over, we're finished now
The curtain has fallen, please take a bow
'Cause when I needed you, by my side
You ran away and left me, feeling so scared
When I'd run to you if you needed me
Just to show you I cared

This is a disaster, our life's a mess
I have something now, I have to confess
I was waiting for heartache, a broken heart
I couldn't live knowing we would end someday, it tore me apart
I knew you'd leave me, you'd free me
When all I wanted was for you to hold me close

But believe me, I love you clearly
And I needed you to keep me safe that night
I waited every second, every minute
Just to hear you say
"David, I love you forever-Not just a single day"

But those words were unspoken
And it hurt me, so very deep inside
What happened to my angel, who'd sit with me and hide?
Let me tell you where you've gone
You've walked straight out of our door
And now I love you as much as I ever have before

I don't know what it is; I'm in love with you
I love you more than ever, even though we're through Perhaps I want, what I cannot have-
But we can't be together-
We have lost it all

If you say those unspoken words
It could fix how I feel inside
Maybe we'd be fixed, with you I could once again confide
Please come back, I need to hear your breath Walk back through our door
Let me love you, like I never have before

Come back into my life, and love me.
Be with me once again-
I can't live another moment without you You're the one who kept me sane.
I'm going mad, living without you
I cannot live with the beating pain, of my broken heart

The emptiness you've caused me, right inside my chest Hurts so much I'm bleeding tears
I cannot sleep, I cannot rest
But perhaps I can move on Because I always gave you my best
And I know it wasn't enough, now you're gone

I know it's over, I know we're finished now But I still don't know enough, no curtain could end this story, and I refuse to bow
Because I need you, right by my side, even though it hurts me
From those feelings I cannot hide
I'll just stay here, even though I'm scared
Just to show you, I never stopped loving you
I always- cared.

I know you heard me, when I was callin'
And you never held me, stopped me from cryin'
I know you heard me, calling out your name
You never came to catch me
I know I'm gonna have to take the blame
You didn't catch me, and I fell right through We're over now, I tried my best, but I just couldn't amount for you

Goodbye

Whenever I need you,
Whenever I need to be held.
Whenever I'm falling,
Whenever my love for you has bled.

You leave me waiting,
When all I need is you so near.
You leave me missing,
With a pain I feel so dear.

Why is it you won't listen.
Why can't you hear me cry?
Why is it I am calling?
Perhaps we'll find out someday;
when I say goodbye.

Sunken

The empty picture frame, hanging on my wall
A story of love, how I let it fall
We loved, and I lost, because love comes and goes
The reason why? Nobody knows

All that I ever wanted, was you by my side
All I ever needed was your hand in mine
Every time I missed you, you walked straight out that door
I knew that I always loved you, but now, a little bit more

Who was to know that you'd never come back You've made me feel, how it is to be alone
Knowing I'll never have you again
Our love blossomed and then was blown

Now sitting up high with the wind, on the roof of my house Watching as the birds begin to fly south
I know that winter is beginning to take it's hold
But I'm shivering because I miss you, not because I'm cold

Any second, any minute, every hour, night or day I'm praying that you'll call me, because I need to hear you say,
"David take me back. I love you, always have and always will"
But I know I'll never hear it, all that's left is for me to pray

I know love will last forever, even now you're gone You'll always be inside me, out love will still live on My heart is now a library filled with memories of the past I should have known we were history, but I thought that we could last

You know that I still love you, even though you let me down
So what if you hurt me, let's start again before I drown
I'm in a sea of depression, my lungs filled with every tear
I need you back I love you, can't I hold you near?

What have I become? I'm a ship lost at sea
Who knew you were my anchor, the compass who guided me Without a captain or a crew a ship floats slowly on, lost with nothing to do Perhaps what I've become, now we're through, you broke my heart when i loved you

To me I am a sunken ship, forever lost at sea
No one will ever find me, a faded long lost memory

You were my lighthouse; you kept me safe from shore Who was to realise I'd drift away when you walked out that door

I've been lost, found, unspoken and heard
Who was to know the one who'd hurt me, was the one who really cared
All I ever wanted was to feel your love. I was your ship at bay
Who was to know you'd sink this ship, and drown my heart, whenever you walked away?

When I Needed You

For someone so special
For someone I hold so dear
I've been hurting the past few days more than ever And where've you been? Nowhere near

I don't know what's worse, what happened
Or the fact I'm facing it alone
But these last few days we haven't been together
And far apart we've slowly grown

I love you so much, I want to fix it
I want to whisper I love you in your ear
But the problems not the words I'm saying It's finding you, to hold you near

Perhaps those days are gone
Perhaps I'll no longer be alone
But can I love you the same again?
That's hard for me to answer

All I want is someone who can be there You've been missing twice now Perhaps that's two times too many Two more times than my heart will allow

I still love you, but that love's just not the same Perhaps at night you'll still hear me calling out your name
I'll be without you, like the past few days
I know the pain will never be the same, again

Mr Glue

We're together but I'm still dying from this broken heart
Do you love me? Did you ever? I loved you from the start What hurts most is you broke my heart, but we're still together now
I want to let you go, but my heart does not know how

I almost lost you, and you might be losing me, but I really want to try
I feel like going because when I think I cannot help but cry
I know you might be reading this, and I want you to know I love you
I want to keep on trying; I know we can make it through Even though my heart is shattered, you can mend it, Mr Glue

I Love You

When I see your face, when I see that smile
No matter what I'm doing, you make it all worthwhile
When I'm lying with you, with my hand on your chest
There's no other place to be, beside you, I can rest
When I'm in your arms and when you hold me close
I cannot help but smile; you're my daily happy dose
I was made to be with you, I love you so deep inside
You're the one I was made for, and I need to be by your side
Your face is so beautiful, you and those big brown eyes
There's no one else for me, you make my... Something... Rise Basically what I'm saying, is Callum you fill me with glee Callum I'll always love you, anyone can see I have one last question; I know what the answer will be;
But I'll ask it anyway:
Will you marry me?

Davie Magill

What I'd do for you

Is there anything I really wouldn't do?
Everything I do, done and did; I did, done and do for you It's a simple equation, you ask, I get Anything to make you smile, to make you happy without breaking a sweat

I'd do anything to keep you safe
I don't care what, but I'd do it
I'd swallow an atom bomb, I'd cut off my arm Anything to keep you out of harm

I don't mind if I seem crazy, but what's crazy in love?
Love is a spell an unknown disease
Perhaps a call from up above
You're certainly my guardian angel, keeping me at ease

I don't know where'd I'd be without you I'd don't know what I'd do I'd have no-one to risk myself for Think of all those things, I do, done and did, I couldn't do them without you

The kiss countdown

10

It was on that night of New Year's Eve
The countdown had officially begun
You and I were together
And you had my heart won

9

I didn't know what was happening
About to kiss a guy
But I had to for love
To wave my senses goodbye

8

As we lean in closer
Thoughts run around my head
What will friends and family think?
Some might want me dead

7

What the hell am I doing?
Stop listening to your heart
My brain kept arguing with me
This really isn't smart

6

We are getting closer
Time to close my eyes
Our noses rub together
It's too late to improvise

5

Time for the final numbers
They're moving in slow motion
I wish they would end already
And stop playing with human emotion

I wonder what he's thinking
We are both the best of mates
What is wrong with the two of us
I thought we were both straight

3

I can feel his breath on my lips
As we're about to touch
We are edging closer
This pressure's just too much

2

Our lips meet in an almighty brace
And all suddenly feels right
I've never done this before
My first is only tonight

1

The whistles are all blowing
The fireworks bang and hiss
This poem is the story
Of my first real male kiss

Annoyed I am

No matter how annoyed I am with you
We always find a way to make it through
But we've been arguing a little bit more lately I feel I've been left without you, when all I need is your heartbeat on mine
Please, let me feel your spirit, show me you still love me, just give me a sign
This feeling I have inside is just too much to bear Please let me know you love me, because it feels like you don't care Whatever happened to you, what happened to the person who I loved?
Who are you who stands before me, tell me, what am I to do?
You're just not yourself, what happened, where did you go?
You're not yourself, what happened, where did you go?
You're not who I fell in love with, all that time ago
I love you, that's one thing that will never change Unlike personality, unlike moods, my love will last forever, never change

Love You, but You Lied

Am I not the one? You could have told me from the start
Instead of leading me around, then tearing me apart Where did I go wrong? Did I cross a line?
You know don't waste your breath, I just don't have the time

I know we could have worked but you won't listen, and you won't listen still
I know you don't like being told, you have your own free will But listen to me, please, let's just make things right Without you by my side, I cannot sleep at night

You took all I had, my spirit, my soul, my heart
But you never gave me yours, when I thought I had every part
I always knew you loved me; at least that's what I thought In future I'll know not to give myself away, a lesson has been taught

You know I always loved you and did as I should have I always helped you, and cared for you as much as I could have You always
Made me laugh, and I'm hurt so much I've cried
I thought you loved me, but you lied, you loved me, but you lied

Us

We stuck together for a long, long while
When I looked at you, I couldn't help but smile
We went for walks, we held hands
But as for our future we made no plans

We snuck around, and acted straight
But we had to always compensate
By holding hands on romantic walks
Or on the phone during long talks

A part of my heart you have taken with you Left with memories of things I knew Leaving me with this empty space
With you in my mind I cannot erase

I will miss us, your sideways glance
I'll listen to slow songs to which we danced
I will miss the way you touched my hand
But you slipped away like a grain of sand

Miss when we used to frolic in fields
Or when I cooked you romantic meals
You were the most beautiful guy I had ever met
But now you're gone my life was not set

You took away a part of my soul
I am no longer feeling whole
When you left I cried for days
Missing you and your loving ways

You used to hold my hand when we walked in the park
We used to hug when it was dark
I will just miss being together
Outside kissing in whatever the weather

You were mine; I could call you my own
But I couldn't tell anyone and felt so alone
It just didn't work out for you too much change Our two hearts just would not engage

If you ever change your mind
I'll be here waiting for you to find Until then take that part of me
We will be back together someday you see

My Last Goodbye

You know and I know that I'm dying
We both know this heart won't ever last
I may have shortened future-
Perhaps my life is all in the past

When it comes to say goodbye
Will you hold me; let me be in your arms
When I'm gone, I'll be your guardian angel
I'll keep you safe from life and it's harms

When I'm gone I'll still be inside;
But that doesn't matter now-
Life is indifferent, time is forgetful
We'll live in the moment now

Let's forget all our problems
Our dreams and our wishes
Let's forget that we'll be apart
Because I can't live forever, but we still have a future
-this is only the start, this is only the start

You know and I know that I'm dying
We both know this pain in my chest-
Will never go away
Until I'm put to rest

So maybe I should look to the future
Maybe I should leave you, maybe I should just let go and slip away
Maybe it could be best to leave you
Even though we'll still be together, only in a different way

You should maybe just let me die
There's nothing else left for me to mend
I've gotten all I want from life;
You, and now the end

So let me fall down to your arms
Let my lie here on your chest, let me listen to your heart beat
This is how I wanted to leave Life is bittersweet

Let me lie there, and as I look up, let me nestle your hair behind your ear
I'll show you that it's all okay, we'll be together again there's nothing to fear

Darling hold me close, don't ever let me go I'll still be inside your heart, which you should always know

Even though I'm scared, even though I have everything to fear I'll be okay, we still have a future and you're holding me so near

I'll wipe away your tears, as they tickle down your cheek
With the energy I have, death is what makes us weak

And as tears begin to well, and slowly start to pour I'm about to leave it all, walk straight out life's door
And I'll look up to you and smile, and realise what I'll miss I'll move your hand up to my lips and give you one last kiss

And that's when I'll realise
I was never looking for somebody to spend a life with-
I was looking for somebody I loved with the perfect arms;
-to sleep in, after I have whispered my last goodbye
Now with my final breath, now with the last whimper of my life I'll gently whisper, hold me near I loved you, and I always will But for now, goodbye, my dear

I Love You

A lot of people live, so that they can whisper, whisper to the one they love the three words known to every man, "I love you"

A lot of people live, but their lives are wasted fearing death, a lot of people fear saying the three words known to every man as they say goodbye, "I love you"

I live so that one-day I can thank you, thank you for all those times you whispered to me, the words so many men do not hear in their lives, "I love you"

I live so that one-day if I'm ever dying in your arms I can look at you through my tears, whisper those three words "I love you" before I fade away

Starry Nights

Now that you have left me, holding onto starry nights;
I don't know how I'll cope. This pain will not go away,
And all I wanted was for your heart, to stay.
But you left me. You left me here- in darkness;
When before you lit up my life. You were my rising star;
The sun that rose every morning when I lifted up my head.
But what now? Who knows where you are?

Somewhere out there, somewhere not so far away, I know, That you are looking to the moon. I know that you are watching it.
I can see it too. I can see your face in it's shadow;
the beauty of your eyes in the reflection of it's glow.
Those eyes call to me. "What happened to the one?"
I cannot answer, I'm lost, and what can I do?
I have nothing, without my sun.

Looking to the stars. Looking at the freckles in the universe itself.
Each star a flaw that only makes it all the more beautiful, but only- to me.
Each freckling star adds character to the dark complexion;
Of time's lonely gaze. Perhaps what I have is the curse of time.
While I stand tall, falling into the dark, lonely depression of love,
Everyone around me fall to the feet of time itself.

All those stars spell a message. To the ones who have lost it all.
The ones, who like me, stand tall against time, without bowing to it's feet.
All those twinkling stars spell a message of hope.
Maybe love can last, or perhaps in waiting to find the right person we forget what love is at all.
Yes. Like time, like the universe;
We forget what love is after all, whilst we're holding on to starry nights.

Davie Magill
